Come Close to the Fire and Feel the Chilli Heat!

What do you get when you mix classic rock and Scottish bagpipes?

You get an incredible night with The Red Hot Chilli Pipers!

The Red Hot Chilli Pipers will really crank up the heat when they bring their music for the kilted generation to The Fergus Scottish Festival on August 11th.

Known for their intoxicating brew of stadium rock, electronic dance and traditional Scottish airs and ballads, their energetic musical concoction blends syncopated precision pipes and thundering guitar.

Separately, they are world champion drummers and pipers. Together, they are combustible. The Masters of Bagrock are back in Fergus by popular demand!

Tickets are only $25.00 ($20 for Youth and Seniors; Children 12 and under free) available at www.fergusscottishfestival.com.

Ticket includes "Tattoo'd in Tradition," a spectacular celebration of 150 years of Scottish culture in Canada.
